

Abstract

Research Project on Development of Community Waste Management Mechanism Tambon administrative organization Thung Na Ngam Amphoe Lan Sak, Uthaitani Province Research objectives To study the problems and needs of the people. About Community Waste Management To develop a community waste management model and develop a legal mechanism for community waste management within the Tambon Administrative Organization of Thung Na Ngam, Amphoe Lan Sak, Uthaitani Province.

From the research area to the preliminary data. In-depth interviews, community leaders, administrators, sub-administrators, school administrators Management of Health Promotion Hospital, Tambol Cha-am, Wat and Factory Manager Problems encountered in community waste management. Lack of campaign and awareness of community waste management. Lack of knowledge on community waste management according to academic principles. Lack of public participation process in community waste management. And lack of parishes in community waste management. The problem is a barrier to research. And research papers to study relevant concepts, policies, master plans. Waste quantity data And hazardous waste involved. And related laws In order to understand the conceptual framework as a tool for shaping and developing the legal mechanism. Proper Community Waste Management Data were collected from 12 villages of 100 villages including Baan Din Daeng, Baan Huay Sook, Baan Man Khao, Baan Nikom Samakkee. Baan Nam Ngon Ban Nong Prue House Ban Nam Fang Ban Thung Na Ngam Ban Bung Fang Baan Sriboon Prajadhipok's House and Ban Thung Millionaire to study the problems and needs of the people. Community Waste Management in the Tambon Administrative Organization of Thung Na Ngam, Amphoe Lan Sak, Uthaitani Province. The results of the research showed that:

1. Problems and needs of people about community waste management, Tambon administrative organization, Thung Na Ngam, Lan Sak District, Uthaithani Province. Knowledge based on academic principles. Process of public participation The public bins are sufficient. District This is a mechanism for community waste management that has a penalty. And people need knowledge in sorting waste according to academic principles. Garbage bags for household by category Household waste disposal Organize trash bin by location in public. Increasing number of garbage trucks Add time to the garbage service. Increase strict measures for waste community builders in the community to participate in problem solving, planning, policy formulation / policy on community cleanliness. Benefit And evaluation of community waste solutions.

2. The community waste management model in Tambon Thung Na Ngam Sub-district Administrative Organization, Amphoe Lan Sak, Uthaithani Province is a measure to reduce the incidence of solid and hazardous waste at the source such as the reduction and separation of solid waste. And hazardous waste. Reinforcing the potential for storing and transporting solid waste and hazardous waste such as community solid waste management, creating waste management model. Should have a place or a waste disposal center (Cluster) because Uthai Thani. There are areas where the potential for solid waste is disposed of by RDF in order No. 41 and the appropriate area as the hazardous waste collection center of the province is No. 16.

3. Community Waste Management In the area of Tambon Administrative Organization, Thung Na Ngam, Amphoe Lan Saak, Uthaithani province, the population and sample agreed. Will the district. In terms of community waste management. Set penalties for fines in case of violation. The fines will be set up as a community waste management fund. And the draft of the provisions of the administrative organization of Tambon Thung Na Ngam about the management of waste and solid waste ... with the content of fines to establish a community waste management fund.